From the perspective of human nature,, this is a very heavy or heart-wrenching topic, , and many times it is also a psychological “"shadow" that cannot be avoided ordained. "The Axis of Evil" Evil) is a , political term derived from the "Axis" in the context of the Second World War. Originally issued by U.S. President George ·W. Bush ,in his State of the Union address on January 29, 2002, ,the meaning of “"states supporting terrorism." Since February 2022, the small group ,“,has been publicly publicized because of the light of the Russian-Ukrainian war, and the key behind the evil of the other two "communist and former communist" powers. These countries are also autocratic and personal dictatorships,, as well as for the self-interest of their families and party members,, and for the purpose of deceiving and enslaving their own people. They warm each other and ,play with terrorist tactics ,with the intention of subverting the existing international order,, thus gaining the contempt and encirclement of the vast majority of the world's countries , and becoming the focus of the current global geopolitical and civilizational conflicts.

Eighty years after the end of the Second World War, , the , evil image of the Axis powers has become well known and deeply rooted in the hearts of the world. Because the reputation is stinking, ,these names or labels,, the parties choose to avoid, , while the onlookers will choose curiosity and exploration, , but there are also outliers who regard evil as powerful and self-proclaimed. Ironically,, the two notorious Axis powers of Germany and , Japan, have become modern recognized as democratic, liberal civilized nations. On the whole,, their integrity, hard work,, austerity, fineness, ,compliance, ,courtesy, cleanliness, etc. Many of the excellent qualities of human respect are significantly higher than those of the surrounding neighboring countries,, and often impress tourists.

Most Chinese, , including descendants of overseas Chinese, , probably never thought that the above sensitive topics would fall on their heads. Whether you are in the mainland, Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan, ,Southeast Asia,, or North America and Europe, , even the most remote places on the earth, , as long as you , can a little Chinese, or think of yourself as "the legend of the dragon", will , be from the memory, a lot of Chinese virtues will be found out, ,and some people often self-evident or boast. In fact, the Chinese are not stupid,, think that "the beginning of the human nature is good." The world's major media have also recently disclosed that ,Chinese people are one of the world's highest IQ groups. The Chinese have a proud capital, , how can stupidity be stained with evil titles? , The Forbidden City is said to have been specially opened by U.S. President Donald Trump, who was told that China's thousands of years of civilization have never been interrupted and , is the only surviving ancient civilization in the world. Is it good? Trump may be wondering, ,don't you need to be great again?

Some people summarize this "five thousand years" of human virtues that reach the height of the ceiling as follows: "Emphasizing the establishment of a harmonious and harmonious human relations. Proposes "righteousness"", "to benefit "by righteousness", "predestination and then profit", and to "see the "meaning of the righteousness" and "see the meaning of the meaning". ""Righteousness" refers to national interests and national interests, "benefit" refers to personal interests, and means to obtain. Emphasize the interests of society over the interests of individuals, and emphasize the moral obligation of the individual to the whole. This is a group spirit rooted in the social and cultural, and then extends to the collective spirit of the whole nation and the country." There are also steps and models for the realization of the ideal of life by "objects, knowledge, sincerity, sincerity, heart-motivation, self-cultivation, governance, and equal world". This basic moral concept of human life is the basic requirement for human material production activities and its own survival and development, and it is also the minimum code of conduct for people to live together. "Sure enough, , there is a "community of human destiny" appearance.

Sounds suspended, , no inside or scared, , in fact, the essence is set in one, ,that is, for the emperor to work, ,the court with ""righteous" and ""li" curved, ,has cut the leeks for two thousand years. Glory, self-confidence, ,but the head of national self-esteem and self-love is a common phenomenon in human society. But boasting about the facts, disinformation, deceit,, or self-proclaimed anesthesia will , surely be despised by the eyes of the world. In fact, the actual life of most people is quite face-to-face. In the iron curtain,, you can guard yourself with virtue and ,scorn the evil of the outside world; but once you go overseas, ,the red book is exposed, , and the holder will inevitably encounter embarrassment or dilemma. The double division of pride and inferiority has more people, ,and the sheep effect will make the party not care, ,or more arrogant, ,and the result will attract many contempt. Some may argue , that evil is instigated or insulted by the West or the United States. Then you can go to the backward countries to try, , may despise more and more generally, , but when you want to make your money, except when you want to make money. There are so many stories like this , that don't deserve to be painted again.

This can be understood why the Taiwan passport has changed, , that is, to blur the scorned mark on the cover. The same is true of Hong Kong, , in addition to the color and the United States and other Western countries, ,many people simply want to take the "second class citizens" of the British overseas passport, , the same is also a reason to avoid evil and avoid evil. Overseas Chinese who have other passports ,will also encounter the polite curiosity of other ethnic groups, , asking if they want to know the relationship with the motherland. The motherland of overseas Chinese spent sky-high sums ,of money trying to reverse the stereotype of the signs of evil. In addition to the propaganda of playing wolf scenes, ,we are also desperately recruiting talents in sports and other fields, , all for the sake of long face: telling the people that ,it is the central power of the people of the people. This is different from the business culture of most countries, ,and the behavior of the new Axis countries is malicious manipulation behind the dictatorship, ,with the intention of achieving the dual purpose of internal and external propaganda.

Perhaps some people want to defend or argue for the definition or scope of evil,, with the intention of confusing those who have flaws in the three views. In fact, these acts ,of justification are also one of the manifestations of evil. Another evil feature is that death is not wrong, ,and the defense to the end, , because this is a necessary condition for the survival of the dictatorship. The evil society is very focused on deceptive brainwashing, , so that you have no distinction between the party and the state, ,and everything "will be "patriotic" on , their lips, so that they can steal and kidnap the country more easily or easily. It is true ,that any person or society has sin or evil, ,and Lu Xun blames it on human nature,, so many Chinese people strive to justify ,themselves as great, excellent races or countries since ancient times; modern thinkers Hu Shi believes that social systems have given birth to these evils. Unfortunately,, the double yoke of stubbornly clinging to feudal autocracy ,and socialist system has increased or worsened the evil nature of man. When the normal conscience cannot introspect or indistinguish, ,the magnification of the group multiplies and spreads, , that is, it becomes a country of evil. This does not preclude those who are still sober and ,struggle to maintain basic human dignity.。

Taking passports and population movements as an example, , the , ""trend of "run" or "walking the line" has risen since the expansion of the axis of evil. No matter how the new Axis powers propagate or curse the democratic society, ,a large number of immigrants are unmoved, , they drag their children and their daughters, ,and they run for the United States, Britain, Australia, Japan, South Korea, etc. , These countries are demonized by the Axis countries with all kinds of vicious language. What makes people fall under the glasses is ,that the more they are boasted about in the world,, the more they want to escape. And ,the upper echelons of these autocratic groups almost always send their children and property overseas.。You can look at the reverse, , where the United States visa-free arrangement of the democratic countries, , there are not a large number of illegal immigrants. Economy and freedom are the main factors of population flow. Even if some countries that ban the Internet and restrict freedom, ,learn the visa-free policies of Western countries, , attract tourists,, but almost no one wants to rely on it,, because most people have a conscience in their hearts to recognize the evil.。

The axis of evil is not a word of fantasy.。After World War II, ,more and more countries began to embrace democratic, ,free modern society. ,After the collapse of the Soviet Union and the Eastern European Socialist bloc in the early 1990s, , the few remaining authoritarian dictatorships panicked and struggled to resist internal and external pressure for freedom, equality and openness, , and put these dictators on the path of terrorism.。The few remaining communist countries,, from secretly to openly and internationally recognized terrorist organizations, ,have taken the initiative to carry the name of the evil axis.。The outbreak of Wuhan pneumonia in 2019 ,has allowed the world to learn what is fraud, ,tactuation and no logical lies: pneumonia is brought by the US military, , but it is not allowed to expose the epidemic to the truth; the plague is made in the United States,, but it is not allowed to trace the source; the virus is foreign, ,but it is not allowed to be said to be laboratory-made.。In addition to shameless jokes, , the regime is not self-inflicted into the cesspool of evil.。

The three-year-old plague of the century,, coupled with the evil invaders who were eager to secretly support the Russian-Ukrainian war, , finally ushered in the expansion of a new type of Axis in 2022,, while the Axis powers opened up the second battlefield in the Middle East.。It has been hidden for decades, , which has been seen by the world as a light and ,properly verifies the nature and scope of the evil terrorist group.。

If anyone still has the illusion that , evil has nothing to do with you or me, , take a closer look at the recent example of terrorist fraudsters in Myanmar.。You ,think it's been the product of great light, and you think it's been fighting terrorism in Southeast Asia, , but it's the root of all terrorism.。The most important point: these fraud zones,, Chinese passport holders are the highest priority or the only guarantee to enter the park! No matter who you are, ,the stars or the scientists are the same, ,and are all free of the ideal organ donor.。, In the history of China and abroad, who can find such evil?

After the reform and opening up after the 1980s, , and years of anti-Japanese anti-fascist education, ,many Chinese naively took pride in the great light of the motherland, , because China was the victor of the previous two world wars, ,especially World War II.。“”After "rise" suddenly by the world, it has ,become the first evil, ,and psychological blows and unacceptable are taken for granted. Not wanting to face is the first instinctive response. Unless you hide in the mountains, Otherwise you have to face reality.。Unfortunately,, in the years or decades to come, ,this is a difficult international dilemma to avoid. At this time, , the Chinese should think more about the experience of Germany and Japan after World War II, , how to , overcome themselves in this difficult time, , and fight with justice to ,meet the challenges of the future.。When future generations,, family or friends evaluate our experience, , you can calmly answer: ,In the turning point of history, I have not been complicit in the evil, ,I am worthy of this era and the motherland that gave birth to me.

There are not many people who are willing to talk openly with you about the relationship between the evil Axis and the motherland. If you agree with some of these points,, or other netizen articles and comments, ,there are many ways to free yourself: like, ,comment, , or turn into the wall..... Let your friends ,and relatives know an overseas Chinese, Whether in Europe and the United States or Hong Kong, Macao and Taiwan and all over the world,, it is sober, ,rational, ,and especially in the break with evil,. , Wouldn't it be nice to be on the New Year's Day when the Year of the Snakes comes?

You mentioned – "Assist of Evil"

In some countries accused of being "axis of evil," there are different characteristics. China is often affected by the immorality of individuals (such as theft, cyberattacks, lying, spreading false information, or exploiting legal loopholes for personal gain). However, Governments usually do not take direct responsibility, but at best admit that there is insufficient education and indirect responsibility. Under the centralized system, the government has guided the people's behavior and encouraged the spirit of struggle by inciting national sentiment and patriotism, but has never openly and effectively emphasized the civilized moral bottom line of the methods of struggle. By contrast, the people of Russia and North Korea are strongly constrained by religious and traditional morals, such as the Russian Orthodox Church and North Korean Confucian culture, which play a role in moral constraints on social behavior. Therefore, China's centralized system masks the responsibility of the government, resulting in the people in the face of national or social pressure, often blindly confused between the right and the wrong view and fear, exposing China's great challenge in moral construction and social governance, these problems will be directly reflected in the negative effects of internal and external.

Where a person is born, there is no choice.

Dragon-killing knife 2025-1-29 01:04 Reply

Now, decide that China is the axis of evil! It is too early. In the eyes of 700 million people, the United States Emperor, Su Xiu is the axis of evil in the world, in the Second World War, later became the axis of evil in the former Soviet Union, the United States allies, the devil Stalin is the face of the pipe uncle. You know that Stalin has already slaughtered thousands of Soviets in the course of the suppression, this United States does not care, it does not care whether it is a gun for the United States, against Germany, this European hegemon!

If Hitler won in Europe and Japan built the Greater East Asian Co-Prosperity Circle, the United States that was beaten back to the Americas must be the axis of evil, an evil axis that seeks to dominate the world. The Jews who were slaughtered were also guilty of being killed a thousand times. The Kuomintang that resists Japan will also become the cannon fodder of this evil axis of the United States, and the Chinese Communist Party is the bandit of the evil empire of the former Soviet Union that destroys the common prosperity circle.

Now put the evil axis of this shit pot on the head of China, it is indeed a little wrong! Not only has it not destroyed any country, nor has it occupied the territory of any country, it has become a province of its own, and there is no military base all over the world! Even if China-backed Russia's war on Ukraine is not provoked by China! Is it just because the world overlord said "the Chinese people do not eat that set", it is considered to be the "axis of evil"?

"The people of Russia and the DPRK are strongly bound by religious and traditional morality, such as the Russian Orthodox Church and the Confucian culture of the DPRK, which play a certain moral constraint on social behavior." This is very much in favor.
It can be explained why there is no bottom line in the defeat of the group in a communist society without faith or false belief.

This is the case. After birth, the path of life can be chosen by itself.
